Journal of Current Science & Humanities – Instruction to Authors

Important Instructions

1. The Articles should be brief, clear and to the point, avoiding unnecessary historical background. Authors should cover their subjects with reasonable thoroughness and completeness. The articles should be reasonably subdivided into sections, and if necessary, into subsections. All articles are subjected to critical reviews by referees.
2. A short summary (maximum length 300 words) is required. The abstracts should be consist of a summary of the entire paper. It should not present the conclusion alone.
3. The authors should assign numbers and titles to all the tables. All the table columns should have explanatory headings.
4. The text should be in MS Word format (*.doc).
5. The figures should be in JPEG, GIF, TIF or Excel format and may be embedded in text.
6. All the color figures will be reproduced in full color free of cost in the online edition of the journal.
7. The papers must normally present the results of the original work. The Critical reviews of important fields will also be considered for publication.
8. The submission of the script will be taken to imply that it has not been previously published and that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. If the scripts are accepted for publication, the author should not publish it elsewhere.
9. All contacts shall be by e-mail.
10. The scanned copy of copyright / publication agreement form must be sent by e-mail.
11. The e-mail id for submission of articles as an attached file is, editor@jcsonline.in
12. Reprints may be downloaded directly from the website. After publishing journal in print form the copies will be send to the corresponding author address.
13. The responsibility of the contents rests upon the authors and not upon the publisher.
14. The Editorial Board reserves the right to make changes if necessary in the research articles.
15. Authors are requested to prepare the manuscript according to “Journal of Current Science & Humanities” guidelines.
